S i r ,

I have the honour to report that one Venkatarama Pollegar of the ^WArregondi family who was in receipt of a pension of Rs. 48--11--8 under Government Order No. ^{224937-8 dated 16th May} ~~224937-8 dated 16th May~~ is reported to have died on ^{April} ~~March~~ 1915. His nephews Venkat^{ra}ama Raju and Narasimha Raju have in support of the fact presented a mahazar through the Tahsildar of Anantapur and pray that as he died without issue his pension may be continued to them, they being his nearest heirs. From the Geneological tree of the family presented to me by the late pollegar, I find that he had no children. In fact from the deposition of his nephews it would appear he was unmarried. Venkataramaraju and Narasimha raju being the sons of the deceased pollegar's brother Dadiraju are his nearest heirs. I recommend that the pension may be continued to them. Narasimharaju wants separate registry of his portion in his name. As no reasons have been urged by him and ⁷ ~~for other reasons also~~ I do not recommend ~~for~~ the grant of his request. Venkatarama Raju may be registered as the ~~Barawandar~~.

I have the honour to be,
